Stage fright to stage right

The course involves:

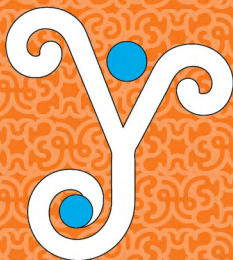

- Small classes – Six people per class
- One night per week
- Instant group feedback in a supportive environment
- Graduation performances at a live venue with a live audience (friends, family and a smattering of strangers).

What you will discover:

- How to get confidence and keep it!
- What it takes to be a great performer
- How to overcome stage fright
- Microphone techniques
- How to improve your vocals without boring scales.
